Vesterday afternoon in the district court heirs of the late L. W. Williams filed objections against the petition of Administratrix Elizabeth M. Williams that her accounts be finally audited and that she be discharged. The administratrix is the widow of the deceased, and the objectors are the children, who allege that Mrs. Williams failed to make proper return to the court of the property of the estate. They charge that she reported but 75 bushels of oats, instead of 338; 25 bushels of wheat instead of 60; 40 bushels of They charge that sne reported the bushels of oats, instead of 338; 25 bushbushels of oats, instead of 60; 40 bushels of potatoes, instead of 150, besides failing to account for a large amount of hay and certain rents paid to the estate, and a certain note for the sum of $865.90, made by John McCready and payable to the L. W. Williams.

Clark Murder Mystery.

O'clock, the Rev. Heary ing.

Mrs. Jed Ballantyne entertained the J W club at her home on Twenty-third street Friday afternoon. The afternoon was spent doing fancy work. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Mesdames Camp, Taylor, Johnson, Kershaw, Cunningham, Bushnell, Allison, Edson, Mowery, Bossner and Johnson were present.

The Clark murder case is still as much of a mystery as ever. The officers have not let up in the search in the slightest degree, but appear to be at sea so far as all outward appearances are concerned. Alleged clews are being reported to the officers as frequently as ever, but each one of them turns out for naught. It is likely that a popular subscription will be made to raise additional funds to continue the search.

The teachers of Weber county held their regular institute yesterday afternoon. The county board of education yesterday afternoon accepted the resignation of Superintendent McKay and disposed of routine business.
